Hello and thank you for taking the time to read about my offer, I absolutely love spending time here in the garden. I am a member and seasonal photographer here too, so I know all the best places to capture your family moments. I am a registered member of the Guild of photographers and have had several photos in national magazines – so perfection come second nature to me.

My style of photography is a combination of relaxed photographs with a few little nudges to capture you and your family having a wonderful time in the garden. If you feel I am the right person for you, feel free to contact me:
